UNUSUAL HOMES

1

--

A radio DJ's house is a popular landmark in the coastal area he lives in. The DJ had an artist install a 7.5 metre sculpture of a whale crashing into his room. If you want to find out why he decided to do that, we suggest you tune into his radio station. He often talks about it on air.

This house is a lesson in how to make use of every single square centimetre of space. The person who lives there – and there's only room for one person – has to do that because this house is incredibly small. It's only about 150 cm wide, in fact. The designer had to fit it into a tight space between two other houses.

A city's clock towers naturally attract attention from below with their dominating height. This one is no exception, besides the fact that behind the clock there is also a living space. It's an expensive, spacious, luxury apartment and, fortunately for the homeowners, the clock is silent. At the same time, they can look at their native New York City from all the sides.

Ex. 9 Przeczytaj tekst, z którego usunięto cztery zdania. Wpisz w każdą lukę literę, którą oznaczono brakujące zdanie (A–E), tak aby otrzymać spójny i logiczny tekst. Uwaga: jedno zdanie zostało podane dodatkowo i nie pasuje do żadnej luki.

THE MILK ROUND

In my grandparent's time, people didn't buy milk from a shop. It was always delivered to their homes. This was called the 'milk round'. It worked like this: a vehicle, called a 'milk float', brought fresh milk every morning. Then the driver took away yesterday's empty bottles when he was leaving. 1. ____

One day I asked my grandfather why a milk round was needed. Why didn't people buy milk from a shop? 2. ____ When my grandfather was young, they didn't have effective ways to keep it fresh for very long.

My grandfather always had a smile on his face when he talked about the milk round. 3. ____ It seems he used to enjoy having a little chat with the driver. 4. ____ My granddad found out who had a new girlfriend, whose dog was dangerous, which neighbours had fallen out, and so on.

- A I wondered why he liked it.
- B The reason was that the milk needed to be drunk quickly.
- C Neighbours collected milk for people who were away from home.
- D He would bring news from other houses, as well as the milk.
- E He collected the payment in the form of coins, often inside an empty milk bottle.
